Advanced Eye Exams for

- AGE RELATED MACULAR DEGENERATION (AMD)
- GLAUCOMA ● POOR SIGHT

By Dr. S A Janjua BSc(Hons) MCOptom DOptom Prof Cert Glau Prof Cert LV
Prof Cert Med Ret DipSV Director & Doctor of Optometry

Brand new, state-of-the-art equipment at John Flynn Opticians in Beeston is now facilitating the very best diagnostic capabilities to ensure the best eyecare in the country. Optometrist Dr. Janjua's new equipment provides hospital-standard insight into your health and is one of just a handful of such machines anywhere in the UK...

Foresight. Hindsight. Insight. It's quite clear how much importance we place on sight. We've all come to recognise that a first-class optometrist will not only make your vision sharper, as a result of the prescription they determine you need, but will also help to assess your overall health, using your eyes to as an indicator of your general health. As eye-care technology has finessed, some optometrists have invested in decent technology, but some diagnostic equipment remains the preserve of dedicated eye-care departments in specialist hospitals such as Moorfields, Manchester Royal Eye Hospital and Nottingham's Queens Medical Centre. Those specialist facilities and teaching hospitals have previously been able to boast the best diagnostic technology, which High Street opticians could only look upon with envy... that is, until now. Beeston's John Flynn Opticians, established in 1938, recently took delivery of its new Heidelberg Spectralis machine which is – without exaggeration – the best OCT scanner available for any eye-care practitioners and one which most dedicated hospital eyecare departments would covet. It's one of just a handful of machines here in the UK and as Dr. Janjua says, it's the gold standard for dedicated eye hospitals, let alone a High Street optician, providing him with unprecedented accuracy and clarity when making a diagnosis.

An OCT (Optical Coherence Tomography) machine is used to take a 3D scan of the eye to allow a specialist to assess the health of the optic nerve, macular and to detect and monitor the progression of conditions like age-related macular degeneration (AMD) and glaucoma. John Flynn Opticians' new machine, though, builds on this technology to create 4D imagery accurate to just a single micron – one hundredth of the width of a human hair.

Above: John Flynn Opticians new Heidelberg Spectralis OCT machine is one of the few in the UK, and is best in class, offering hospital-standard diagnosis of eye health for the optician's patients.

The system also uses artificial intelligence to track the exact position of successive scans, overlaying them precisely to check changes over successive months or years. Fast, contact-free and painless, the system can also send images to hospital departments for other clinicians to review in the event of a referral.

"We can use the technology to examine tiny details that help us to detect eye disease at the earliest stages, reducing the risk of sight loss and improving our patients' lives," says Dr Janjua.

Naturally technology is nothing without expertise, and so Dr. Janjua is committed to interpreting the results of a scan and explaining findings in an accessible way. With the highest quality diagnostic information comes the most accurate prescription, and alongside the very best ophthalmic lenses from across the industry – Zeiss, Nikon and Hoya – the practice's state-of-the-art equipment is crucial, but only when used alongside the very best diagnostic skill and the provision of quality ophthalmic lenses and luxury frames.

The result is great service, clear vision and true peace of mind; a holistic service that's clearly better at providing quality eyecare.

John Flynn Opticians provides eye examinations, prescription eyewear and contact lenses from its practice on Devonshire Avenue, Beeston, NG9 1BS, call 0115 925 5051 / 0115 939 2421 or see www.johnflynnopticians.co.uk.

DON'T JUST TAKE OUR WORD FOR IT... READ WHAT OUR CUSTOMERS HAVE TO SAY...

"Just picked up my third pair of specs from Flynn's. I've used them for years and cannot fault them, from the excellent care with my sight test to Annette and Wendy who are on hand to advise, make sure your specs fit and sit properly and just generally make you feel welcome. Nothing is too much trouble. Thank you all. Until my next visit."

E. Taylor

"I cannot speak highly enough of Dr Janjua and all his team at Flynn Opticians in Beeston. Due to wrong prescriptions in the past going to him changed my life. Not only do you get the best product on the market and expert advice, everybody is so helpful and kind. I would not go anywhere else."

J. West

"I'd heard that the glasses were great quality and the service was great at John Flynn Optician. The staff have been very helpful and gave me all the facts I needed. I love the personal touch and that you don't have to ask for help – it's just given. I love my new glasses – the style, the colour, the quality – everything. Dan and Annette have been brilliant from the minute I walked in the door. They are very friendly and provided perfect service in every way. I will be coming back and will share my experience with others."

Breeze meets local business woman Laura Serrant, whose poem was chosen to accompany a monument to the Windrush generation

Keeping it
Local Since 2002

Nottingham business woman Laura who's poem was chosen to appear on a new statue to commemorate the Windrush generation has described it as an "absolute honour".

Prof Laura Serrant OBE, who is originally from Nottingham, said: "It's something I never even dreamed of."

The monument, at London's Waterloo Station, celebrates thousands of people who arrived in the UK from Caribbean countries between 1948 and 1971.

It depicts a family with suitcases and was revealed to mark Windrush Day.

Prof Serrant, who is employed by Health Education England as regional head of nursing for Yorkshire and the North East, said she had been asked to forward her poem for consideration by the committee behind the monument by Baroness Floella Benjamin.

"I agreed, she submitted it and it was accepted," she said. "It was an absolute honour."

The government gave £1m to fund the statue, which was designed by Basil Watson.

Prof Serrant added: "The national Windrush monument commemorates the bravery of men, women and children from the Caribbean who came in 1948 to help rebuild Britain.

"They came from sunny climes to Britain and they felt they were doing their duty.

"At the time, the Caribbean was part of the British Empire and people felt they were as British as the people who lived here.

"Over 70 years later, we see a national monument recognising their contribution to the nation.

"For me, [I felt] the responsibility to commemorate that generation, who obviously included my own parents, and reflect their contribution and uphold the honour of their fortitude."

Laura joined the Duke and Duchess of Cambridge along with Windrush passengers Alford Gardner and John Richards and children at the unveiling of the National Windrush Monument at Waterloo Station.

Sam and Alex raise money to help beat prostate cancer.

In January 2020 local lads, Sam and Alex began training to take on the challenge of cycling from Sheffield to Amsterdam, in a two day, 145-mile bike ride to the Dutch capital.

"The training started well and was gaining momentum, we started slow and steady and so was our fundraising.. and then bam! Covid hit and threw the whole event into doubt and unfortunately it got postponed...

"The training slowed and eventually came to a standstill, but the donations kept coming in and we're so thankful to everyone who had donated so far!

Once we started coming through the pandemic and getting back to some kind of norm. Sam and Alex got their cycling shoes and pulled up their shorts and got training again.

Fast forward to last month and their ride set off on their quest - Football to Amsterdam supporting lifesaving research to help beat prostate cancer, a disease affecting one in eight men in the UK. The guys along with a few others raised a massive total of £53,000.

"We would like to thank local businesses CVH Accounting, S2S Group and Cycle Inn who sponsored our football shirts and helped us raise awareness"

Well done Sam and Alex, pictured left, we're all very proud of you both!

Gadgeteers, Summer Reading Challenge 2022 at Inspire libraries 9th July - 4th September.

Libraries in Nottinghamshire are gearing up for a summer of reading fun, as the Summer Reading Challenge returns with a special science and innovation themed challenge, guaranteed to spark children's curiosity about the world around them.

Produced by The Reading Agency and run in libraries across the country, the Summer Reading Challenge encourages children aged 4 to 11 to read for pleasure over the summer holidays, building reading skills and confidence and helping to prevent the 'dip' in reading skills while children are out of school.

Children read six library books of their choice over the summer, collecting rewards (including smelly stickers) along the way. Every child who completes the challenge will receive a certificate and medal.

Developed in partnership with the Science Museum Group, this year children are invited to join the Gadgeteers on a science filled reading adventure. As children progress through the challenge they will discover the innovative ways the Gadgeteers are preparing for a party at their local community centre, exploring the science and innovation behind everyday objects along the way.

Taking part is easy - children sign up at their local library, then read six library books. Children can choose the books they want to read; story books, fact books, graphic novels, poetry, joke books – all reading counts!

How to take part...

- Sign up at the library to collect a FREE Gadgeteers poster
- Children read 6 library books of their choice and collect special incentives each time they finish a book
- Read all 6 books and receive a medal and certificate!

Library staff and volunteers will be on hand to chat to children about the books they read on the challenge. Local libraries will also be organising Summer Reading Challenge events for children to take part in, so check at your local library.

The Summer Reading Challenge is open to children aged 4 – 11 years and is completely FREE to take part.

There is also special Mini Challenge for our youngest readers (aged 3 and under). Children collect 6 stickers on a collector card for the books they borrow, earning a special gold sticker when they complete.

Alongside the challenge, Inspire libraries will also be hosting a range of fantastic events for children and families throughout the summer including live theatre performances, craft workshops and more.

Gadgeteers is running in all Inspire libraries including Beeston, Inham Nook, Stapleford and Toton library, from Saturday 9 July until Sunday 4 September.

beeston film festival

Bigger, Better, Bolder!
By Sam Kurd

As summer marches on, so do we here at the Beeston Film Festival, tirelessly watching and rating and discussing the nearly - 200 entries we've received so far. I know, I know: it's a tough job, but somebody's got to do it!

It's not all about gauging the quality of the films, though. 2023 will be our 9th year, and we're plotting and planning to make sure we keep up the spectacular growth we've had over all these years. Gears are engaging, wheels are in motion, and though I'm not at liberty to gossip about all the great changes we have planned, suffice to say that by the time we arrive at our 10th anniversary, we'll have done our fair share in helping Beeston become the cultural hub it serves to be!

On that note, Festival Director John Currie and Commercial Director Simon Pryce recently hopped across the channel to Cannes – not (just!) to soak up the sun but to network and brainstorm and connect with creatives from all around the world. They came back buzzing with ideas and we're putting them into motion – watch this space for details as we get closer to the Festival weekend...

That weekend looks to be as brilliant as ever, if the quality of submissions is anything to go by. As our selection team beaver away, the cream of the crop is rising to the top and competition is heating up. Here's a sneak peek at some films that may make the cut, though it's early days yet:

Bus Driver is a compelling drama about racial tension and how misconceptions and prejudice can quickly spiral into violence. It's unflinching in its attitude and leaves you wondering how we got to such a bitter and distrustful state of affairs.

Thriller Voices is just as tense, tackling domestic violence and asking if and when a bystander should act to intervene. It's witty and clever too, though, with a killer punchline!

Not My Sister is a tough but tender drama, a look at a three generations of women trying to love each other but bound by secrets and resentment. A strong contender for Best in Festival in my view!

And then there's Hideous, a musical exploration of fear and passion and gay identity. It's slick, stylish and arresting.

That's all from me, see you next month!

spotted dog art group

Run by volunteers and centred in Beeston, the group draws members from surrounding areas...

The group was formed in 1995 by a small group of artists, enthusiastic about their art and wanting to learn more. The group has grown organically over the years. We are a friendly, supportive Group with members from all walks of life. We welcome those who are beginners and hobbyists alike. Some members are professionals with formal training. Whatever an individual's experience of art is, they are welcome!

WORKSHOPS

We meet monthly on a Saturday usually at a local Beeston venue where we hold Professional Tutored Art Workshops (from September to June). Art Tutors include: Stephen Ashurst, Doreen Hunt, Rachel Grigor, Mark Beavan, Claire Botterill, Gwen Scott, Tas Severis and many, many more have shared their artistic knowledge and skills with us enabling us to create our own art work as we explore different media, techniques and subject matter. We foster an open mind and experimental attitude to drawing, painting, design and the use of colour. Workshops are always fun and enjoyable! A willingness to have a go is all that is needed!

During July and August, we arrange open-air painting sessions to (usually local) places of interest, like Beeston Marina where there is a lot of interesting things to paint by the Canal. This can be more enjoyable when the weather co-operates of course!

MEMBERSHIP

Membership of the group is only £15 per year. For further information contact: Gwynneth (Membership Secretary) flying high!

Fancy taking to the sky? Join our local club...

Nottingham and Derby Hot Air Balloon Club have started flying their new yellow Lindstrand balloon. It will replace one of the club's existing 2 balloons that was over 30 years old and was starting to get quite porous. On a recent flight while over the M1 the new balloon was joined in the skies by local paramotor pilot Pete Hobbs who circled round several times and got some amazing air to air photos of the balloon.

Nottingham and Derby Hot Air Balloon Club has been a regular sight locally since 1978 and is a not-for-profit group of enthusiasts. It is believed to be unique as the only balloon club in the country with membership open to the general public. The club does NOT sell balloon rides. Members take turns being on the ground crew and then getting flights in the basket on future outings. The club flies from 8 or 9 different launch sites depending on wind speed and direction. Members also fly the balloon at several different balloon festivals each year. They recently attended the Midlands Air Festival in Warwickshire which had about 200 balloons taking part.

The club are currently looking to recruit a few more members. No previous experience is required although it is essential to be a car driver. Anyone who would like to know more about the club can phone 0115-8541028 or visit www.facebook.com/ndhabc.

caring for carers

Beeston musician Danny Beardsley has written and released a song to raise awareness for carers...

Danny Beardsley returns with his stunning new sophomore album, Chase The Sun.

Danny is a truly gifted musician with a powerful and alluring voice. He has been hailed by many as one of the most intuitive and exciting guitarists of his generation. Danny has certainly cut his teeth on the live circuit; he is founder and member of instrumental progressive trio, The Parallax Method and has played at some of the most prestigious festivals including Download, Bloodstock, UK Tech Fest, Hammerfest, HRH Prog, HRH Road Trip to Ibiza, Rock and Blues Festival, Camden Rocks, and Macmillan Fest.

Danny's musical ventures have earned support from the likes of Classic Rock Magazine, Scuzz TV, Powerplay Magazine, Prog Magazine, Kerrang, Metal Hammer, Planet Rock and Total Guitar, as well as ranking him in MusicRadar's 2019 poll as one of the top 10 new guitarists in the world. He is also an official ambassador for Orange Amps and a PRS Guitars supported artist.

Following from the widespread success of his debut album, Blood from A Stone, which dropped in 2019, Danny is back with a record that surpasses the very high standard set by his debut. Chase The Sun is an album that holistically illustrates Beardsley's supreme talent and songwriting prowess. Danny remarks about the record: "Creating this album has been a cathartic process for me, mentally and spiritually. I wanted to push myself as a songwriter and showcase more influences. I transposed guitar parts and experimented with arrangements until the songs spoke to me. As with my other albums, I recorded and produced it myself at my home studio."

The video includes facts and figures about Carers in the UK and signposts carers to charities that can support them:
<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=K3XuaMVqDG0>
www.instagram.com/mrdannybeardsley

It is estimated that there are around 6.5 million carers in the UK, with another 6,000 people taking on caring responsibility each day. Over one million people care for more than one person.

- Carers save the economy over £132 billion every year.
- 80% of people caring for loved ones say they feel lonely or socially isolated.

If you are a carer, there is support out there for you:

gardening...

Working with smaller spaces...

Did you know that in urban Britain, the average garden size for consumers aged 25-44 years old is 12m²?*

Outdoor spaces in towns and cities tend to be in smaller spaces and are cleverly designed so that they work well for everyday life. Space is important so contemporary, urban gardens consist of clean, geometric lines, simple but effective designs and minimal, fuss-free planting.

We have put together a guide for the summer bank holiday with some small garden design ideas so you can make the most of the plot or balcony that you have for the long weekend.

Go potty

Where space is at a premium, a pot is a great way of adding the option to grow. They are particularly useful for those that have patios or decking that make it hard to dig down. Container gardening is also great for the generation of house movers who can simply pick up the pots and move on.

Planting in lots of different sized containers can give your garden a sense of perspective. Cluster large pots with smaller containers to add interest and create a plant display with height and structure. Why not try our Orson Cylinder Terracotta Planters with evergreen shrubs such as box balls, skimmias, hebes, and ivy which will contrast against the planter's earthy tone or colourful shrubs in our Loudon Glazed Planters to create a statement against walls or beside doors.

Plant upwards

Using a planter is an ideal way to add greenery to your space, no matter how small. A vertical garden is a simple way to transform your small outdoor spaces while boosting shade, beauty, and privacy.

There are several vertical gardening options to consider if your humble garden is space-challenged. Our Decorative Metal Garden Arch With Feather Design can provide the support needed for flowering plants and vines or if you are a grow your own enthusiast - peas, grapes, and tomatoes.

Or another small garden idea is to plant climbers in raised beds and train on trellises to make the most of the space. Jasmine and roses are both easy plants to grow and will provide delightful colours and scents.

A great way to maximise plant space is to create a living wall which is particularly apt for smaller garden plots. Plant our range of Metal Wall Planters with evergreens, hardy perennials, grasses and succulents to create great displays hanging from a wall or fence outdoors.

Summer of love

Gardens are now seen as the fifth room of the house with garden furniture sales soaring and providing an extra living room in the summer sun. If you don't have a big space in your garden you can still make a functional and beautiful seating area for everyday enjoyment. If you want to create a relaxing seating area for your small garden, foldaway furniture or a little table won't take up too much of the patio and garden space.

The Repton Wooden Grey Garden Love Seat folds down and is the perfect size for patio and terrace spaces, coming in a cool grey, natural wood tone for a beautiful, unique finish. Our Richmond Round Garden Dining Table and Chairs Set is contemporary in style and the table is 1m in size.

Divide into zones

A trick in landscape design is to divide a garden into zones to make the overall space seem larger. Using structures like arches and trellises works well, with our Decorative Songbird Garden Arch beautifully framing entrances and walkways or providing a classic divide for different spaces.

Using bamboo screens, hedging, and metal screening will make the garden feel bigger because you can't see everything in one go and areas have been concealed. This could include a dedicated area for seating distinguished by a patio or decking, a play area marked with turf or a bench in a secluded area. Using partitions to create different areas will help add interest to your garden, whilst adding an illusion of more space.

Light and reflection

If your small garden doesn't get much sun, we recommend something to lighten up the dark corners and define the boundary of the space. Installing a mirror along a garden wall or fence will reflect both the plant foliage and the sky, creating the illusion of a bigger and extra space. Outdoor lighting plays a significant role in the appearance of your garden, creates a sense of depth and highlights architectural features at dusk. Use our LED Solar Spotlights to uplift plants and bushes or our 200 LED Solar String Lights to highlight trees or emphasise the height and silhouettes of garden structures.

Announcing the full casting for Adrian Scarborough's adaptation of Alan Bennett's comic novella *The Clothes
They Stood Up In*.

Fri 9th Sept - Sat 1st Oct 2022

"Everything's gone. Furniture, blinds. They even managed to carry off a hot oven and the 'sticky chicken casserole'. They can't be human."

Opening in September, this is the first time the popular story has been told on stage and kicks off the Playhouse's Autumn season.

Previously announced Olivier Award winners Sophie Thompson (Four Weddings and a Funeral – Richard Curtis, Into The Woods – Donmar Warehouse, Present Laughter – The Old Vic) and Adrian Scarborough (The History Boys – Nicolas Hytner/Free Range Films, Gavin & Stacey – BBC, Leopoldstadt – Wyndhams Theatre) play the central roles of Maurice and Rosemary Ransome. These stalwart actors first performed together in Robert Altman's modern classic film, Gosford Park. The production reunites Scarborough with director Adam Penford after they worked together on the acclaimed Playhouse production of Bennett's The Madness of George III, for which the actor won the WhatsOnStage award for Best Supporting Actor. That production was also screened into cinemas worldwide by NT Live.

Completing the cast will be Ned Costello (Napoleon – Ridley Scott, Britannicus – Lyric Theatre Hammersmith), Charlie de Melo (The Interceptor – BBC, Much Ado About Nothing – Shakespeare's Globe) and Natasha Magigi (Anatomy of a Scandal – Netflix, Don Quixote – Royal Shakespeare Company), each in a variety of roles. Fans of Coronation Street will also recognise Charlie de Melo as the notorious solicitor, Imran Habeeb, who recently dramatically departed the soap to the distress of fans.

A night at the opera ends with a shock for mild-mannered couple Maurice and Rosemary, when they open their front door to discover their flat completely empty. From light bulbs to carpets to toilet paper, even their chicken casserole has been stolen.

The Ransomes turn detective to try and work out who is behind this outrageous act, and why and how they did it. Along the way, they are forced to examine their lives when stripped bare of the worldly possessions that define us all. Should they rebuild their old life, or begin afresh?

A bittersweet exploration of marriage, dreams and lives unlived, Adrian Scarborough's adaptation brings Bennett's hilarious story to the stage for the first time, capturing his trademark observational wit in this gentle and darkly surprising tale.

Adrian Scarborough says –

"To have Sophie Thompson play the lead in 'The Clothes They Stood Up In' is the casting coup of the decade. We have worked together many times, but never on stage, and never as husband and wife. I literally jumped for joy when she finally said "I do!"

As if one acting legend wasn't enough, we're lucky enough to have three more. The wildly talented Charlie de Melo, Natasha Magigi and Ned Costello will reveal their staggering versatility, bringing vividly to life a host of delicious Bennett characters in this premiere of Alan's quietly subversive, hilarious and bittersweet story".

Tram plays special role in film to be seen by audience of 4000 at Motorpoint Arena

Keeping it
Local Since 2002

Children from Beeston Fields Primary & Nursery School were given special access to one of Nottingham's NET trams to film a video that will be shown at the Flying High Trust Awards event at the Motorpoint Arena in July.

Tramlink reserved a stationary Tram to be available at the Toton Lane stop and for the children and members of their multi-academy trust team to film the video.

Tramlink are also one of the sponsors of the massive event which will see thirty schools from Nottinghamshire and Derbyshire come together for the glittering awards, with schools performing music and dance pieces on stage or in the audience.

Alison Sweeney, Marketing Manager at Tramlink said they were pleased to support the children's filming: "We were thrilled that the children could use one of our trams as their recording studio and we can't wait to see the results on the awards night.

Pupil Qirat Najam Khan (Year 6) said filming their video on the Tram was fun.

"It was great to have the whole tram to ourselves as we've never been on our own on one before. The tram was huge, and it was a fun and new experience! We loved the process of filming—it was fun doing the comedy sketch! We both had great lines to say and a funny salsa dance."

Pupil Theodora Onuoha (Year 6) agreed saying, "Yes, we were super happy, as it wasn't anything like we'd done before. We are both really looking forward to the awards event, – there are so many fun things that are happening on the night. We are not nervous, we are looking forward to it. On the night we are doing some more comedy and even presenting awards and hopefully receiving one too!"

Chris Wheatley OBE is CEO of The Flying High Partnership and said he was grateful to Tramlink. "What a fantastic opportunity this has been, not only as a Trust, but especially for the children filming the opening titles to our Trust Awards 2022 event.

Tramlink really went the extra mile in making their film extra special and we cannot thank the team at Tramlink enough for this opportunity."
